BLOOD BANK ELECTRICAL CLOCK... ticks off time until December 1, date of first Red Cross Blood Bank here since reactivation of headquarters. At Bank of America now, clock will be seen at football games, and at downtown business locations. Pictured are left, Harry Jacobs and Mrs. Fred A. Lincoln, Gallon Club donors during World War II; Mrs. C. E. Easley, Blood Recruitment chairman; and Frank Dominguez and W. H. Tolson, Gallon Club donors.

MR. AND MRS. LESLIE PETERSON

PETERSON-McVEY WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN NEVADA

At home at 1315 Madrid avenue are Leslie Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peterson of 819 Beech avenue, and his bride, the former Miss Daphne McVey, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Grant of 1654 W. 215th street.

The couple exchanged wedding vows in a late summer service read in Las Vegas, with Rev. Harold E. Broughton, Methodist pastor, as officiant.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peterson, parents of the bridegroom.

The bride chose as her wedding attire an aqua suit with white accessories complemented by a corsage of gardenias. The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Peterson then left for a honeymoon trip to Boulder Dam, Chandler, Ariz., and Palm Springs, returning to Torrance for a reception in VFW clubhouse attended by approximately 50 relatives and intimate friends.

The bridegroom, an employee of J. C. Penney Company, Los Angeles, for four years, was graduated from Torrance High School in 1948. Mrs. Peterson received her diploma from the same school last June.

Nancy Jane Howey Becomes Bride of Lt. C. D. Crabb

Church of the Holy Faith in Inglewood was the setting for the evening service which united in marriage Miss Nancy Jane Howey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Howey of Hollywood Riviera, and Lt. Cecil Duane Crabb, USAF, son of Mr. Cecil Crabb Sr. of Indianapolis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in candlelight satin with a veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Marilyn Lawson of Hawthorne was maid of honor wearing a gown of copper satin complemented with a bouquet of gold chrysanthemums. Miss Ruth Scendson of Redondo Beach was bridesmaid wearing gold satin and carrying bronze chrysanthemums.

Lt. Micheal Shea, USAF, was the bridegroom's best man. The bride was graduated from Shortridge High School, Indianapolis, and attended El Camino College. Her husband also was educated in Indianapolis schools, attended USAF college, Earl Okla.; Butler University, and El Camino College.

A reception at the Howey residence followed the ceremony, and later the couple left for a honeymoon—trip to northern California. They will live at Air Force Base, Greenville, S.C.

Where the motive to do right exists, and the majority of one's acts are right, we should avoid referring to past mistakes. — MARY BAKER EDDY.

of KLAG-TV. Attending were family members and intimate friends of the principals.

A reception for 75 guests followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Walters, 20923 Jamison street, Keystone.

Attending the bridegroom was his brother, Charles Moore, and the bride's attendants were her school friends.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Crestline the couple have established their home at 253 W. 223rd street, Keystone.

IT'S A GIRL!

Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Kresse of 1443 El Prado are receiving congratulations following the birth of their first grandchild.

The baby was born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Manning (Doris Kresse) of China Lake. She weighed six pounds at birth at Ridgecrest Hospital, China Lake U. S. Navy Base, where her father is a research chemist and her mother has been a teacher for some time.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Manning of Kansas City, Kan.

Multiple Services

Mrs. Clifford E. Easley, Blood Recruitment chairman for Torrance Branch, American Red Cross, in naming her Recruitment committee, reported on a recent meeting in Torrance with W. A. Swirth of Los Angeles Chapter, chairman of Mobile Units.

The Los Angeles chairman told of Torrance's wonderful record during the war in all fields of Red Cross service emphasizing Blood Recruitment, and urged full cooperation now.

Mrs. Easley's committee includes the Branch chairman, Mrs. R. F. Bishop, the secretary, Mrs. Russell Lund, Mesdames Virginia Jones, H. L. Mitchell, Paul Barth, John Stevens, Mollie Dowd, M. L. Genter, Messrs. B. T. Whitney, Von M. Bergen, and John Melville.

Walteria Recreation Hall in Walteria will be the scene of Red Cross First Aid classes beginning this evening from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

Hugh Murray, of Gardena, a competent instructor, will conduct the course of study. Mr. Murray points out that, because of the amount of material to be covered and its importance, students cannot be accepted after the second class, Thursday, November 16.

The National Security Resources Board has assigned the teaching of First Aid in civil defense planning as one of the chief responsibilities of Red Cross. Nationwide, 20,000,000 men and women will be taught the skills and techniques which are geared to prepare citizens to help themselves and others in time of any emergency—either natural or atomic.

All Red Cross courses are free and open to the public. For further information, or to register, please call Torrance 1524.

At the last meeting of the Branch, Mrs. J. W. Beeman, chairman of Home Nursing, reported that a new 2-hour class in Home Nursing will begin Tuesday, November 14 in Torrance High School Faculty Lounge at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. John Keefer, former Canteen chairman, offered her assistance to secure Canteen workers for the first Blood Bank.

FROM GRAND CANYON
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meadows (Ellen Toth) of Grand Canyon and formerly of Torrance are guests at Park Hotel.

Woman's Club Presents Valley Lecture Series

Torrance Woman's Club, whose president is Mrs. B. Taylor Whitney, extends to all women of the Torrance-Lomita area a most cordial invitation to attend the series of lectures to be given by Lorita Baker Valley, California's most outstanding reviewer of world affairs and current books.

First lecture in the series has been scheduled for 1 p.m. tomorrow in the clubhouse, and those who do not have season tickets may obtain individual tickets at the door. Season ticket holders who have not yet sent their checks to Mrs. R. A. Birmingham, are requested to do so.

Tea will be served at the conclusion of each lecture, it was announced, by Mrs. Earl A. Miles, tea chairman for the lecture season. Mrs. Chris Jones, tomorrow's chairman, hopes everyone will remain for the tea hour.

The following books have been selected by Mrs. Valley for discussion Friday:

"The Choice," Boris Shub; "Tito and Goliath," Hamilton Fish Armstrong; "We Speak for Ourselves," Ed. Irving Stone; "Our Jungle Road to Tokyo," Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichleberger; "Calculated Risk," Gen. Mark W. Clark; "Presidents Who Have Known Me," George E. Allen; "The San Quentin Story," Clinton T. Duffy; "Fifth Chinese Daughter," Jade Snow Wong; "Noble Essences," Sir Osbert Sitwell; "People Named Smith," H. Allen Smith; "Best Humor 1949-1950," Untermyer & Shikes; "The Decline and Fall of Practically Everybody," Will Cuppy; "Cats and People," Richard & Frances Lockridge; "The Perfect Hostess Cook Book," Mildred O. Knopf; "Betty Crocker's Picture Cook Book," "The Maugham Reader," "The Disenchanted," Bud Schulberg; "Follow the Seventh Man," Robert Standish; "Champion Road," Frank Tilsey; "The Prodigal Heart," Susan Ertz; "In the Pink," Mildred Spurrier Topp, and "The Dry Season," Dan Wickenden.

Better light makes a sight of difference

With good light to help, you don't find Mom restricting her sewing activity to the must-be-done mending and darning, anymore. That's because she finds sewing a pleasant pastime, instead of a headachy, tiring chore. The right light can put a lot of fun into sewing a fine seam.

Good sight is tremendously important to every member of your family. Which makes good light important to the happiness of your home.

Good light means enough light in the right places, free from glare and shadow. Modern lamps are scientifically designed to provide it—and add beauty to your home, besides. They'll make yours a Sunshine Home, in more ways than one. See your dealer.
